FIVE SHEFFIELD FAVORITES.

Turf wisdom had its inning at Sheffield yesterday, five favorites winning, while Scamp who captured the hurdle race, was backed down from 7 to 5 to 1. The weather was perfect, the track fast and the attendance large. The race track seemed to have more attraction for some of the visiting politicians than the convention, and Tammany badges and others were conspicuous.

The principal event was a mile condition race in which Rudolph, Urania, Saint Lee and others were entered. There was a hot tip out on Saint Lee, and opening at 4 to 1 he was quickly backed down to 8 to 5. C. Slaughter had the mount, having come from St. Louis to ride him. Audrax and Urania caused some delay at the post, but the rubber snapped to a good start for all except Audrax. Urania made the running followed by Fred K. Slaughter lying back in third place. There was no change till after the sixteenth pole, when Slaughter brought up the favorite, and in a driving finish beat Urania by half a length, with Fred K. third the same distance back. Rudolph was never formidable. In the opening race Loudon the favorite who broke last with a running start managed to beat Gunwad by half a length.

Solo was an odds on favorite in the two-year-old race. Off fourth he went to the front at once, winning from Tom Anderson who beat Fondlif a head for the place.

In the seven furlong event Miss Young was always first choice with Simmons next in demand. The favorite and Glenoid were the contenders to the stretch where the old horse was beaten and Dick Behan came up. He could not catch Miss Young who won by a length, with Freddie L. T. a fair third.

Though it was Ashland's first essay over the jumps he was made favorite in the jumping race. Settle Up as usual behaved badly at the post. Ashland led over the first hurdle where Gratz Hanly fell. Shoemaker jumped it high enough to clear a house only to make a mistake at the second obstacle. Scamp then went to the front and won easily.

Jennie June the favorite won the last race easily from Barguard. F. Starkweather the owner of the second horse ran the winner up to $700, $400 over her entered price, and she was bought in for $705.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Turf, Field and Farm declares that Henry of Navarre has thrown out a splint and has been placed in the hands of a veterinarian for treatment.

Charles Boots, of the Elmwood, Cal., farm, has sold, to go to the city of Mexico for racing, Duchess of Milpitas, b. f. 4, by Duke of Norfolk—Ledette, by Nathan Coombs, price $1,000.

The Louisville Courier-Journal knows good racing matter when it comes to hand, ready and on time. This idea comes out of the display of part of DAILY RACING FORM's advance criticism of the Realization Stakes in the Courier-Journal of Monday.

Ed Corrigan's Indio, who won at Latonia yesterday, was one of the highest priced youngsters of last winter's Haggin sale at San Francisco. He cost Mr. Corrigan some $4,000. His owner was in town yesterday, returning to Latonia last night. He sent a bet of $250 to Sheffield on the colt.

FIVE CHEAP LEATHER FORMS.

Five "Leather Forms" were ordered and not taken. The five $6 books, with copies of DAILY RACING FORM from June 2d to date, for sale at $5 each.

MILWAUKEE'S GOOD RACING.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 8.—Jim Murphy's Buck Massie and the good 2-year-old George Rose have arrived and will race here. Souffle will be returned here after her Cincinnati race. Old Stanley King send his entire string here to-morrow as does Al Orth. It is excellent racing and weather. The crowd today was good. They grow daily. Everybody is more than satisfied with the racing.

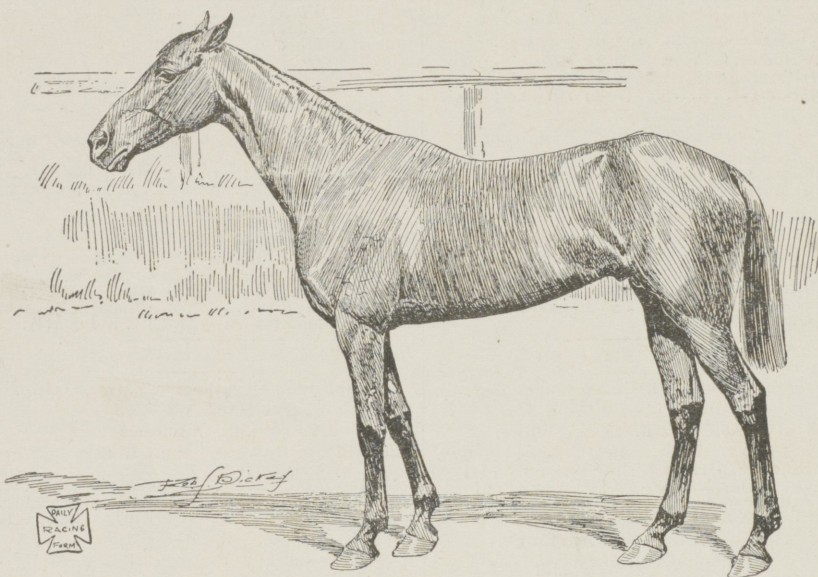

RACING GOSSIP.

W. C. Vreeland, a veteran reporter of the eastern turf, tells the following story from observation of the Kingston Futurity course record of 1:08, still on the books:

"Starter Caldwell made a mistake as to the distance of the race and sent the horses away from the five and a half furlong post instead of the regular 'futures' mark. Track superintendent, Frank Clark, who was one of the timers, noticed the mistake and tried to remedy it, but was unable to do so, the horses being dispatched too promptly. The record caused a good deal of comment. Those who knew held their peace, as it was thought that no good would result from having the race run over again. The track con-

THE KEY TO TURF SUCCESS.

About August 10 DAILY RACING FORM Publishing Co. will issue a book that will give the racing public more information than it ever had before. The volume will be of pocket size and built for long and hard use on linen paper and within flexible leather covers. It will be copyrighted as a book and patented as an appliance to racing. DAILY RACING FORM Manual will contain a handicapper's table, such as is usually foisted on this and that "lamb" at $50 and $100. We cannot supply a mental key of application. Nature is the only doctor in such special cases and it is busy in other lines just now. The handicapping table is one of weight applied to distance and time, in general use. To it will be attached a track-speed series of compilations—our own. It is the result of a year's work on average speed, at all distances and all American tracks at their best. Other conditions are not within mathematics, because the complexion of less than perfect going is not ditions were all against fast time, the track being slow if not heavy, from a previous rain. There are any number of men in the East familiar with this little in ide history of Kingston's futurity record, and when they speak about the best performances over that course they always give the credit to that grand filly, La Tosca, who carried over 120 pounds and defeated Nellie Bly in a very fast race."

figurable. The Manual will also give the track records of all the American courses, book making percentages and an experience tale by the editor of DAILY RACING FORM on "how not to lose on the race track." This tale will be a personal one of loss and gain and the avenues through which both came. The Manual will not have a large edition. Its price will be far below its value. Only advance orders will be filled—as they come. The book will cost $5 and can be delivered August 12 at the latest. All its compilations will be intelligent, simple and up to date. Some dozen subscribers to Leather Form did not call for the books they ordered—and did not pay for in advance. Orders for the Manual must be accompanied by the price. The book is not for sale by newsdealers, outside Hawley of Cincinnati, Jett of St. Louis, E. C. Weatherly of our San Francisco agent, Halle of New Orleans and Dearing of Louisville.

Brodhead again showed his yellow streak. The ride on Rachel McAllister was wretched. Ovation ran an excellent race. Effie T gave it up in the stretch. She is of little account.

Paine is not "much" these days. Hurns was a trifle green, but had speed. He will be heard from later on. Solo was by far the class of it.
